

Underdog (Radio Edit)

Kasabian

Kill me if you dare
Hold my head up everywhere
Keep myself right on this train I'm the underdog
Live my life on a lullaby
Keep myself riding on this train
Keep myself riding on this train Love in technicolor, sprayed out on walls
Well I've been pounding at the pavement
'Til there's nothing at all
I got my cloak and dagger
In a bar room brawl
See the local loves a fighter
Loves a winner to fall Feels like I'm lost in a moment
I'm always losing to win
Can't get away from the moment
Seems like it's time to begin Kill me if you dare
Hold my head up everywhere
Keep myself right on this train I'm the underdog
Live my life on a lullaby
Keep myself riding on this train
Keep myself riding on this train It don't matter
I won't do what you say
You've got the money and the power
I won't go your way
And I can't take for the people
They don't matter at all
And I'll be waiting in the shadows
'Til the day that you fall Feels like I'm lost in a moment
And I'm always losing to win
Can't get away from the moment
Seems like it's time to begin Kill me if you dare,
Hold my head up everywhere
Keep myself right on this train I'm the underdog,
Live my life on a lullaby
Keep myself riding on this train Tell me if you're down
Throw your weapons to the ground
Keep myself riding on this train Paper on the wire
Sold your soul for another one
Keep myself riding on this train

Keep myself riding on this train
