Another Haven

Elvenking

[Music & Lyrics: Jarpen][Solos: Jarpen / Aydan]Serenity Broken and twisted Displaying sharp claws in the name of libertyPrimordial greed Disguised as good purpose Always stood as a trademark of our breed
History shows how to avoid all the sorrow
And its teachings we all should borrow All the fears of the past still lay closeFar away the horizon twinkles
with fragments of hope Far away some clay is left to mould
another havenWatching powerless a flow of deeds
that is always the same
A freakshow from heaven sent Witnessing the rise and fall of the lessons we learned
They all seem forgotten
All wrongs and mischiefs,
still are carried within Blinded in front of our tearsI just feel free Merged into this rhyme Inoffensive like a fallen stingless bee Everyday I discover the fire Burning deep like an undead pyre
Still it feeds all the tragedies of timeFar away the horizon twinkles
with fragments of hope
another havenWatching powerless a flow of deeds
that is always the same
A freakshow from heaven sent
Witnessing the rise and fall
of the lessons we learned
They all seem forgotten
All wrongs and mischiefs,
still are carried within Blinded in front of our tears[Acoustic solo: Jarpen]Everyday I discover the fire
Burning deep like an undead pyre
Still it feeds all the tragedies of timeFar away the horizon twinkles

another havenWatching powerless a flow of deeds
that is always the same
A freakshow from heaven sent
of the lessons we learned
They all seem forgotten
All wrongs and mischiefs,
still are carried within
Blinded in front of our tears
Blinded in front of our tears
Blinded in front of our tears
