There's nothing wrong with your perception on reality
Do not attempt to adjust the illusion
We control the harmonics
We control your emotions
We will move you to the left
We will move you to the right
We can reduce the volume to a whisper
Or increase it to a deafening roar
Now it's time to submit quietly
We control all you hear and feel
You are about to enter a great adventure
And experience the odd and mystery
From your ultimate fantasies, to your deepest fears
From which you may never returnHello! Hello! Hello
Come on. come on, come over
Hello! Hello! Hello
Until the storm is over
Love three times a day, love your life away
Love three times a day, and get yourself again ...
It's in your DNA
And everybody'll know where you endGoodbye, goodbye, goodbye
There's no need to step over
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Before you do all over
Love three times a day, lock yourself away
Hate yourself and say
And hit yourself ...
Love three times a day, know now everyday
It's in your DNA
A gentleman should play with a bandIt's a same old, same old puttin in the ...
If you really need to know how to call my name
You can lose your mind looking for your ...
There's a one kind of lover, that's just my style
Like some downtown lady with a uptown smile
Playing it close, kissing lipstick girls ... spells
