

Stormkeeper

Culture Club

I have love sweeter than lies
Gave you no reason not to decide
Say you are leaving, you've got too much pride
It's not love if you have to hide it Who is the man who puts weaves on the sand?
It's the stormkeeper, stormkeeper
Liven my life when I need to survive
Is the storm keeping you warm?
Keeping you warm I have cried so many times
But only for things that never were mine
Heaven is sweet, love is unkind
Thoughts are twisted inside your mind Who is the man who puts weaves on the sand?
It's the stormkeeper, stormkeeper
Liven my life when I need to survive
Is the storm keeping you warm?
Keeping you warm Don't let them tell you
That this love is wrong
And don't let them fool you
That this love can't go on, on Who is the man who puts weaves on the sand?
It's the stormkeeper, stormkeeper
Liven my life when I need to survive
It's the stormkeeper, stormkeeper Who is the man who puts weaves on the sand?
It's the stormkeeper, stormkeeper
Liven my life when I need to survive
Is the storm keeping you warm?
Keeping you warm
