

Thunder In the Night Forever! (We Ride to Fight)

Planes Mistaken for Stars

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

burn the billboards, they've broke our embrace and gouged our eyes dead are the days of misspent wishes and spoonfed lies brother don't slip, and sister don't forget our truths have been raped and blackened at the ends we'll wash in blood, and bathe in vice we ride to fight
