When At The End Of The Road

Pascale Picard

No matter where you start
No matter if your story is worse than mine
Everybody suffered, we all have a background
And the choice to leave it behind
There's a time when it's sane to leave our pain
There's a time when its vital to live againBut I dont even want to try ro ride 2 bikes with only my arms
So if you're not even ready to try to hold your handlebars
Meanwhile, we're not gonna flee, well just wait and seeCause we never khow how many Years
We haye to leave our trace
So keep your speed, I'll keep mine
And as long as it's safe
I'll say on my trail
So I'll be the only one to blame if I get lost'Cause nothing's gonna change
And you're not gonna change 'cause I would like to Well, you're not gonna change, and good for you
I wouldn't want you to
I'm not gonna change anyone & no one will ever change me
As long as I like the ways I amToday I just adore the way I amWell I think you're running too fast & if I try to follow you
My problems might follow us too
We may not have the same speed and arrive at the same point at the sane time
Meanwhile, I'm not gonna flee, I'll just wait & seeCause we never know how many Years
We have to leave our trace
So keep your speed, I'll keep mine
And as long as it's safe
I'll say on my trail
So I'll be the only one to blame if I get lostBut I don't even wanna try to ride 2 bikes with only one ass
And if you're not even ready to kick yours...There are times to fight even against the current
There are times when all you can do is follow the wave
Wherever it might bring us its it couldn't be lower than where We are now
Meanwhile, we're not gonna flee. well just wait & see
