

Warzones

Warhammer

The emanation of destruction goes on
Fortune is buried under walls
What is left behind our lives
Are the ruins of a global starvationThe result of a deadly ecology
Reverses the order of things
Nothing will prevent the age of chaos
And the premonition won't be heardWarzones - under a burning sun
Warzones - the recapture of nature beginsThe recreant still try to ignore
The forthcoming downfall of a crumbling earth
Oceans filled with blackened poison
Now rivers of blood run coldAshes bombard the hallowed ground
Detonations burn the dirty air
Apocalypse progress towards completion
Unloaded dustraid through awesome firesWarzones - under a burning sun
Warzones - fall into the flames of anguishWithin the everlasting silence
The dreadful claims for the crown
When anything that had ever existed
Lies trembling on the burned ground...("The Winter Of Our Discontent")
