Time Won't Take Away

Common Rider

The sun was unsure and wet with rays
If shuffled down in an amber fade and left us where we lay We remade light
then we let it spill Made a radio out of movies and smoke let it banter on the sillThen a very old song shot sparks from everywhere In a see through arc time won't take away as if all along we'd been together here In secret hours time won't take awayStepped into the pool shook off all our spells We flew out from beneath troubled thoughts like birds from a well Just like snow
like a sprung bow This moment eternal we're in love let the world come and gorun to the shore
