I Can

Steven Cooper

Seems like nowadays, everybody lacks patience
Want it right now, always sick of this waiting
Hating on anyone, stuck in the process
For God sakes, how long will you waste, it's non sense
Telling you to give up on the dream, but who
Are they to throw away, all their faith in you
No way you're gonna fade, let them say and shoo
Get away, 'cause what they say don't have weight with you
You keep moving on, write that, do a song
Right track, you belong, fight back, prove them wrong
Yeah, just keep on, keeping on Yeah, 'cause this track you be on
Right there's gotta lot of potential
So never give up, just sharpen that pencil
And close out all the negative talk
Put on those old shoes and choose where you walkWhen you fall, stand up
And when you break, stand tough
And when they say, you can'tYou say I can, I can
When you fall, stand up
And when you break, stand tough
And when they say, you can't
You say I can, I canDon't lose faith, 'cause the minute you break
Is the minute you wake, with a million mistakes
And a million regrets that, you'll never get back
The time that you set back, to please other friends that Tell you that you can't be what you wanna be
There's a world out there go and see what you wanna see
I've been there, I can relate
So let this song tell ya that it's never too late
Wide awake, and I see more than ever
That people are quick to give up on their endeavorsNever really try 'cause they're scared of failure
So, allow me to be the first to tell ya'
I've failed more times than I've succeeded
In the end, exactly what I needed
To allow me to learn the right steps
So I'd never go back, and I never regretWhen you fall, stand up
And when you break, stand tough
And when they say, you can't
You say I can, I can

When you fall, stand up
And when you break, stand tough
And when they say, you can't
You say I can, I canA lot of dreams get left at the wayside
And I can feel their death in the baseline
'Cause of something someone once said
Won't let them stop you in your tracks, at once dead
Say to yourself, I'ma be stronger than Stay up late everyday working harder than
Keep my head focused, stick to the plan
They say I can't, but I say I canWhen you fall, stand up
And when you break, stand tough
And when they say, you can't
You say I can, I can
When you fall, stand up
And when you break, stand tough
And when they say, you can't
You say I can, I can
