

Another Kind of Green

John Mayer

Sarah's friend she lost her mind
Left him and made it look sexy and all
You fear I won't be far behind
Thinking I'll be the next to leave
I know I might be anxious
But I'm still not crazy And I don't need another kind of green to know
I'm on the right side
I'm on the right side with you I used to be the one you saw
Crying alone to sad songs
But then we go and hit the wall
When nothings changed and nothing's wrong
It's not the perfect hand
But I don't hit on nineteen And I don't need another kind of green to know
I'm on the right side
I'm on the right side with you Someday you'll drift away from me
Adopt some new philosophy
That doesn't keep the two of us in mind
Move into someone else's place
And stare into some other's eyes
And slowly only come to realize That you didn't need another kind of green to know
I'm on the right
Mine was the right side
I'm on the right side with you
