Extreme Cold Weather

Messiah

With all my long hair, I don't need a hat to wear Extreme cold weather is reigning outside, the wind is blowing and the frost does bite.I hope I won't freeze my toes off, cause then I will have to cough an icycle's hanging from my bum, and there lies my neighbours frozen mum.The thermometer's below zero, don't try to be a hero
by running to scool
Now you're frozen dead you fool.Extreme cold weather is freezing my blood, I'd always have summer if I'd be god.
Now is april and you have thawed,
you won't step out again into the cold.
