

Definition of Me

Steven Curtis Chapman

Here come those words again
I run for cover, I'm dodging them
Still they seem to find the way
Around my best defense Here come those little thoughts
Of all I ought to be but I'm not
I try talking to myself
And still I'm not convinced I'm good, I'm bad
I'm everything in between
I'm this, I'm that
But [Incomprehensible] It is Your love that defines me
And Your love that reminds me
It's not what I do This life I live You have given
And in You I am hidden
This is what I know is true
That the definition of me is You, yeah This ladder never ends
I climb up, then I slide down again
Still they say you've not arrived
Until you reach the top But Your kingdom's upside down
It is the servant who wears the crown
First is last and last is first
And You're all that I'm not 'Cause I'm weak, You're strong
I'm empty 'til You fill me
I sing this song
To keep myself remembering It is Your love that defines me
And Your love that reminds me
It's not what I do This life I live You have given
And in You I am hidden
This is what I know is true
That the definition of me is You I have been made by You
I have been saved by You
All that I am is all because of You I'm weak, You're strong
I'm empty but You fill me
I'm singing this song
To keep my self remembering It is Your love that defines me
And Your love that reminds me
It's not what I do This life I live You have given
And in You I am hidden
This is what I know is true
That the definition of me is You, yeah Yeah, definition of me is You
