Roll Over Lay Down

Status Quo

When I got home that night early one morning Seeing the note written in ink pinned to the door Taking a drink cool from the fridge, from the table I drank a toast, you were the most the night beforeRoll over, lay down and let me in Roll over, it's a long way where I've been Roll over, lay down and let me in Roll over, lay downWhen I get home tomorrow night after this morning Show me the care you showed in the note the night before Maybe I won't take a drink from the table Reckon I'll lay me straight down the floorRoll over, lay down and let me in Roll over, it's a long way where I've been Roll over, lay down and let me in Roll over, lay downWhen I get home tomorrow night after this morning Show me the care you showed in the note the night before Maybe I won't take a drink from the table Reckon I'll lay me straight down the floorRoll over, lay down and let me in Roll over, it's a long way where I've been Roll over, lay down and let me in Roll over, lay down
