The Fires of Passion

Music and Lyrics by: Charly Sahona

You and me
Used to live the best and the worst
We never let reason
Hold the reins of our wild love
What keeps us addicted
While our world is drowning ?
I'll tell you the things
that you don't wanna hear from me
This burning love got killed by
The fires of passion
Torn and joined
In the same delightful nights
Broken hearts
After wicked recurrent lies
There's something so bewitching
Between you and me
I'll tell you the things
that you don't wanna hear from me
This burning love got killed by
The fires of passion
Take off the mask, free your mind
Shake up the dogma
Let's fall again , blindly into
The fires of passion
