Show Me Your Way

Glen Campbell

When I find myself in sadness
And fear of all to which I drift
I climb the stairs of gladness
And face the light of God insteadAs I wander through the darkness
I search for all that's truth and bright
To walk the pads of glory
And see the lamp of Gods tonightShow me Your way, oh Lord
And let me sing all praise to Thee
Take my heart and hear my prayer
I need Your love to show meAs I feel the world awakin'
The wonder of Your gentle hand
Will touch all hearts, arisin'
And change the empty course of manShow me Your way, oh Lord
And let me sing all praise to Thee
Take my heart and hear my prayer
I need Your love to show meI was livin' for fame and passion
All my feelings have slipped away
As I longed for another passion
To lead me to this place todayShow me Your way, oh Lord
And let me sing all praise to Thee
Take my heart and hear my prayer
I need Your love to show me
I need Your love to show me
