

Who's Your Baby Now

Mark Knopfler

The rock you stood upon
Is broken up and gone
Hey Babe, who's your baby now?
On the slipway of your dream
Stands someone else's scheme
Hey Babe, who's your baby now? Baby now, baby now
Your baby now, baby now The ancient trade you ply
Ain't enough to get you by
Hey Babe, who's your baby now?
The yard is locked and closed
The old guard has been deposed
Hey Babe, who's your baby now? Your baby now, baby now
Ah, your baby now, baby now
Aah, aah, aah, aah, aah, aah You always had to be the kind
To have to say what's on your mind
And hey, you really showed 'em how
You used to laugh about
How you used to dish it out
But hey, who's laughing now? 'Cause the rock you stood upon
Is broken up and gone
Hey Babe, who's your baby now?
Yea the rock you stood upon
Is broken up and gone
Hey Babe, who's your baby now?
Aah, aah, aah
