Stained Glass Horizon

Cathedral

Stained glass horizon
Trapped in tombs of day
No energy to run
Nowhere to escapeFortune left behind you
Blank dice is your gain
Opium moon is rising
The summer, it never cameYour spirit reigns
In the church of hell's domain
Love's stained glass world
You can't see throughOoh yeah, yeah yeahBlack dove is a flying
From the reaper's hand
You'd chase the white
If you weren't blindA banquet for the living
Skeleton at their feast
Sin's a bad man's lover
Soul's lost in a pentagramYour heart's in chains
Vulture of your own remains
Love's stained glass world
You can't see throughIf Jesus walked beside you
You'd take Lucifer's hand
Evil feels good
When it's never foundHiding with the sunshine
Lost man in the shade
Fight the force that guides you
Pull yourself from NetherlandsYour heart's in chains
Vulture of your own remains
Love's stained glass world
You can't see through
