

I Don't Need Anyone

Kylie Minogue

I feel like speed
I feel like liquid
I give into you
I melt into you
I felt like nothing
Said and done
They hey
I fall into you
I fall into you
Hoo I don't need anyone
Except for someone
That I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for someone
I've not found Your signature
Is on my hip
A kiss from you
Still on my lips
I am entire
I am finally one
But the moments
Is long gone I don't need anyone
Except for someone
That I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for someone
I've not found I don't need anyone
Except for someone
That I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for someone I don't need anyone
Except for someone
That I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for someone
I've not found I don't need anyone
Except for someone
That I don't know
I don't need anyone

Except for someone

Umm hmm
