

SleepWalking

Erin McCarley

Turn the corner, too familiar
Turn around into your past
OhhYou hide and seek the same addiction,
Hope you find the better one of the last OhhYoure sleepwalking through your big bed of lies
Wish on up your new star every night - Oh yeah
I see youre at it again, sittin on your hands
Waitin around for the wind to change direction - Oh yeah
There you go again
Stuck in your head, havin a ball in youre fully optimistic way
So off with your masqueradeMmmmAll the people look so happy, safe beneath their plastic skin - Ohh
Get a rise from anothers tragedy, but tip-toe so nobody can get in - OhhYoure sweet-talking through youre big bed of lies
Wish on up your new star every night - oh yeah
I see youre at it again, sittin on your hands
Waitin around for the wind to change direction - Ohh
There you go again
Stuck in your head, havin a ball in youre fully optimistic wayOh, doubt in you, you suffocate in your feather sleep
You twist inside your hollow eyes when the mirror speaksI see youre at it again, sittin on your hands
Waitin around for the wind to change direction - Oh yeah yeah yeah
There you go again
Stuck in your head, havin ball in youre fully optimistic way - yeahI see youre at it again, sittin on your hands
Waitin around for the wind to change direction - Ohh
There you go again
Stuck in your head, havin a ball in youre fully optimistic way
It's a beautiful day
So off with your masquerade
