

No, Never

Jimmy Eat World

I stumble when there's something hard to say
I needed time so I took it and got me some space
Oh it isn't that I understand
You just wondering wherever I am
And the look you give is like I'm lost
And you don't see how it could be equally be turning me off I guess there's some things, you should never have,
never known about
We got a good thing, but you're better off not asking me how Well is it so mean, just to let it pass, let it all go
Because there's some things, you should never have,
Never known about, no never known about, no never known I'd be lying if I told you it was just a kiss
I'd be lying if I said there wasn't more to it
So what you think its gonna help?
When you worry about everyone else
The options that I think you have
Are say goodbye or get over it, goodbye or get over it Because there's some things, you should never have,
never known about
We had a good thing, but you're better off not asking me how
Well is it so mean, just to let it pass, let it all go
Because there's some things, you should never have,
Ever known about, no never known about, no never known You know I don't ever sleep,
Just staring at the ceiling
I lay there and hate myself
Wishing I could be somewhere else
With someone just like me
Nothing complicated
All the feelings and fantasy
Can you trust, can you trust That there's some things, you should never have, never known about
We had a good thing, but you're better off never asking how
Well is it so mean, just to let it pass, let it all go
Because there's some things, you should never have,
Never known about, no never known about, no never known
