Coral

Moulettes

In a Kaleidoscope of a million castles a jungle garden a holiday place
the place id like to beBecause the Architects Well there's a million members Who serve a purpose because they meet one another equallyWe are the force of nature
we cannot control
Can't controlWe are the force of nature
we cannot control
Can't control
We are the force of nature
we cannot control
Can't controlAnimal mineral plant
????
Electric Purple
Yellow and peach, Turquoise and plumLike and opening eye in this wondrous kingdom of light and shadow
Under the tropical ocean sunWhat is done is done Can't undo itWhat is lost is gone
Can't get to it
What is done is done
Can't undo itAnd it's all in the palm of our handsWe are the force of nature
we cannot control
Can't controlWe are the force of nature
we cannot control
Can't controlWe are the force of nature
we cannot control
Can't controlWhat a delicate thing
To hold in tension Fractal perfection
now just skeletal fingers pointing at the skyAnd with the colours gone and the visitors absent we'll know the value of what we lost when we watched it die.What is done is done

Can't undo itWhat is lost is gone
Ca'nt get to itWhat is done is done
Can't undo itAnd it's all in the palm of our handsWe are the force of nature
we cannot control
Can't controlWe are the force of nature
And it's all in the palm of our handsWe are the force of nature
we cannot control
we cannot control
Can't controlWe are the force of nature
And it's all in the palm of our hands
