

Last Daze

Petra

Somewhere in the darkest night
A stranger has lost the way
Cold wind and a distant light
Has carried his heart away Some say he was one of us
A prodigal gone astray
But inside he's as cold as ice
To the truth that he won't obey He won't discern
The point of no return In the last daze, the final haze
There was strong delusion to believe a lie
In the last daze before the blaze
They couldn't see beyond their misty trance
To grab the truth and have a fighting chance
In the last daze Cold chills when the spirit speaks
That some shall depart from the faith
All ends in calamity
Just when they thought it was safe
They followed the lies the fables men devised In the last daze, the final haze
There was strong delusion to believe a lie
In the last daze before the blaze
They couldn't see beyond their misty trance
To grab the truth and have a fighting chance
In the last daze Some say it's a certainty
A sign of the times I am told
But I weep for the souls of those
Who will never return to the fold
Never return to the fold In the last daze, the final haze
There was strong delusion to believe a lie
In the last daze before the blaze
They couldn't see beyond their misty trance
To grab the truth and have a fighting chance
In the last daze, last daze It's the last daze, oh, oh, yeah
Na, na, na, na, na, na, yeah, last daze
Na, na, na, yeah, last daze
Last daze
