Seventeen

The Hybirds

I get back home at a quarter to four
What ya doin' with your keys inside my door?
Seventeen and you've never been here before
I try my best not to put you down
There's a hole in my head where the words fall out
Don't care what faithless people say
Should I care?
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Seventeen, oh, oh
Don't change one thing, oh, oh
We take our chances every day
We watch those bleeding hearts decay
I'd walk through walls, would it make you stay?
I burnt my bridges and I burned my friends
If I had my time I'd do it again
Don't care what faithless people say
I don't care
Seventeen, oh, oh
Don't change one thing, oh, oh

Just burn to the end at seventeen girl, oh, oh
Seventeen, oh, oh
Don't change one thing, oh, oh
Just burn to the end at seventeen girl, oh, oh
I don't wanna talk, I wanna go home
There's a voice in my head, won't leave me alone
I want you to follow me home
'Cause I know this star that we transcend
Could be the only chance we get
Seventeen, I've never been here before
Seventeen, oh, oh
Don't change one thing, oh, oh
Just burn to the end at seventeen girl
Seventeen, oh, oh
Don't change one thing, oh, oh
Just burn to the end at seventeen girl
Burn to the end

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/