Mania (TLA Mix)

Babel Fish

And there she was, she had a sip
I tried to light a smoke but it was lit
I couldn't help but watch her eyes
They were incapable of telling liesFelt hypnotized, a mania, insania for you
Lost in you, a mania, invainia for you
Lost without youShe didn't zap her life away
She lived a Technicolor life all dayA kiss of life, a taste of death
I suffocated couldn't catch my breath
Catch my breathA mania, I couldn't eat, I couldn't sleep
I couldn't smile at her, I could not weepShe couldn't help, but watch my eyes
She saw a desperate man that she despised
That she despised, a mania
