

Against a Sea of Troubles

Five Iron Frenzy

To only end the heartache to shed this mortal coil Face pressed to the earth I'm frozen to the soilMy only thought with my last breathTo suffer slings and arrows adrift and lost it seems or take flight with the sparrows the ghost that haunts our dreams?Drained of all resolve my spirit pours from me The fire's growing cold please do not forget meMy only thought with my last breath
pray for me now
the hour of deathOne lost night against a sea of troubles I could not hear You through the thunder's pealMy only hope is that You cannot, not- be realMy only thought pray for me now
My only though
pray for me now
with my last breath
