Last Date

Floyd Cramer

It's over our love affair Too late now I find I care His sweet love no more I'll share Now he's gone I'm alone I was wrong should have known Took me home on our last date

I search for a single way To tell him what I had to say I kissed him watched him walk away Set him free foolishly destiny misery Tragedy on our last date

Took the ring from my trembling fingers Brushed a tear from my baby's eye Walked away didn't know that I'd soon miss him so Guess I was too young to realize So blind I couldn't see How much he really meant to me And that soon he would always be On my mind in my heart I was blind from the start Lost his love on our last date
