

Obscene

Over the Ocean

If you must ask you were in my heart always.
If I did not comfort you or say the right things
    You were here every time I looked within
        I don't know where I've been
        All I really know is this seems obscene
            Forgive me for what you've seen
        All I really know is I've been obscene to you
            I wish you luckEvery breath was for you,
                Even though you won't believe me
                And as I walk away tears flow in my eyes
                We both know that this love was never right
                I don't know where I've been
                But all I really know is this seems obscene
                    Forgive me for what you've seen
                All I really know is I've been obscene to you
                    I wish you luck, I wish you luck
