

I Sang Dixie (Previously Unreleased)

Dwight Yoakam

I sang Dixie as he died
The people just walked on by as I cried
The bottle had robbed him of all his rebel pride
I sang Dixie as he died He said way down yonder in the land of cotton Old times there ain't near as rotten as they are
On this damned old L.A. street
he drew a dying breath laid his head against my chest
Please Lord take his soul back home to Dixie I sang Dixie as he died
The people just walked on by as I cried
The bottle had robbed him of all his rebel pride
So I sang Dixie as he died He said listen to me son while you still can Run back home to that Southern land
Don't you see what life here has done to me
Then he closed those old blue eyes
And fell limp against my side
No more pain, now he's safe back home in Dixie
