

Heaven's Lullaby

Chris Hillman

When there's a tear in your eye
And words that are lost
When we have to say goodbye
Know there's a place in our heartEven though we're apart
We call it heaven's lullaby
When you're alone in the night
The world's closing inYou've just got to hold on tight
Call my name I'll be there
You can go anywhere
In a heaven's lullabyThe whole world stops
When you shed a tear
Then a rainbow will appear
All the angel's up on high
Sing a heaven's lullabySpread your wings and fly into my heart
Forever we will hold tonight
We both know that it's real
Timeless and still in a heaven's lullabyThe whole world stops
When you shed a tear
Then a rainbow will appear
All the angel's up on high
Sing a heaven's lullaby
