

More Everything

Mxpx

I'm taking off,
Heading out of this town
Get this plane off the ground,
And safely set it down We had our first fight late last night,
I watched her walk right out the door,
She said she needed something more: More laughter, more tears,
More reasons, more cheers,
More everything, in all the ways, and more I'm taking off,
Mabey I'll bum a ride
I'll turn with the tide,
And spend my nights outside The chance I had just passed me by,
'Cause now my girls began to cry,
She said she need something more: More laughter, more tears,
More reasons, more cheers,
More kissing in the car,
More staring at the stars,
More colors outside the lines,
More undivided time,
More everything, in all the ways, and more More everything in every way,
Every second of the day
And every thought that's played out in my mind
You're everything that I've been trying to find
You're everything that I've been trying.....to find More laughter, more tears,
More reasons, more cheers,
More kissing in the car,
More staring at the stars,
More colors outside the lines,
More undivided time,
More everything, in all the ways, and more
More everything, in all the ways, and more
