

Exorcism

Clairity

[Verse 1]

When the TV comes on all by itself
Switching channels, losing signal
That's how I know when you're around
You mess, you mess with my head
Playing games so sick and twisted
Just to hear me call for help[Pre-Chorus]

I'll wait for you to let me go
Can't wait for you to let me go

But you won't[Chorus]

So I'll reclaim my body and my soul
Banish the broken from my bones
You're no longer my religion
So I take on a whole new energy
Manifest a better part of me
Gotta rid you from my system

It's time for an exorcism[Verse 2]

When the phone rings, the entire room goes cold
I find myself choking on tears and
Makeshift nooses from the telephone chord
And your voice, it's like nails on a chalkboard
Every time you speak my knees go weak
And I fall halfway out the door[Pre-Chorus]

I'll wait for you to let me go
Can't wait for you to let me go

But you won't[Chorus]

So I'll reclaim my body and my soul
Banish the broken from my bones
You're no longer my religion
So I take on a whole new energy
Manifest a better part of me
Gotta rid you from my system

It's time for an exorcism[Breakdown]

It's time for an exorcism

It's time for an exorcism

It's time for an exorcism

It's time for an exorcism[Bridge]

And it starts right now, and it starts right now
I would rather die than with you inside, gotta pull you out

And it starts right now, and it starts right now
I would rather die than with you inside, gotta pull you out (From me)[Chorus]
So I'll reclaim my body and my soul
Banish the broken from my bones
You're no longer my religion
So I take on a whole new energy
Manifest a better part of me
Gotta rid you from my system
It's time for an exorcism
