

A Soft Place to Fall

Kathryn Cloward

Some days it's just too much for me
And I reach my max capacity
When I can't seem to handle it all
That's when I need a soft place to fall
A soft place to fall I can't tell you how hard it is for me
To say what it is that I really need
When the tears crowd my eyes and silence calls
That's when I need a soft place to fall A soft place to fall into you
Let me crawl into your arms
And hide away
You make me feel safe
With your love
Crumbling my walls
Releasing it all
You're my soft place to fall Many people only see strength in me
But I have equal parts of sensitivity
And I know this is true for the long haul
I'll always need a soft place to fall
