

San Francisco Street

Sun Rai

Lost on the freeway
Well, this must be LA
Tired and lonely With no real place to stay
Is this the future and where I'm gonna be?
Last night it hit me
When I had this crazy dream Of waking up
In your house
On a san francisco street
We tune out all the nasty weather
And it's all in front of you and me
You were intriguing
Just looking at a magazine
Like when I first saw you
Back in two thousand and three
Then you walked over
Said: 'you don't have to be alone.'
I don't have a crystal ball...
There's no way that I could've known (I'd be) waking up
In your house
On a san francisco street
We tune out all the nasty weather
And it's all in front of you and me
Waking up
In your house
On a san francisco street
We tune out all the nasty weather
And it's all in front of you
All in front of you and me oh, oh
Yeah... Waking up
In your house
On a san francisco street
We tune out all the nasty weather
And it's all in front of you and me Waking up
In your house
On a san francisco street
We tune out all the nasty weather
Then it's all in front of you
All in front of you and me San francisco street,
You and me

So only front of you and me
You and me
San francisco street, you and me
Oh, oh

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>