

High Road

JoJo

I gave you my heart
I gave you my soul
I gave everything that I had
But you left me in the cold But still I had faith
Somehow I believed
That if I keep love in my heart
It will find its way to me I could fight, seek revenge
But that's not who I am
No, I'm not givin' in
I will rise above I'm gonna keep walkin'
Though it may seem far
I'm gonna keep reachin'
When life gets too hard
Not gonna let you bring me down
I'll take the high road I'm gonna keep climbin'
'Til I see the top
I'm gonna keep tryin'
Though I may get lost
Not gonna let you bring me down
I'll take the high road I'm gonna get by on the high road
I'm gonna get by on the high road This pain that I feel
I will overcome
I know somewhere deep down inside
Is the pain that makes us strong I could curse, I could shout
Take the easy way out
I'll forgive you somehow
I will rise above I'm gonna keep walkin'
Though it may seem far
I'm gonna keep reachin'
When life gets too hard
Not gonna let you bring me down
I'll take the high road I'm gonna keep climbin'
'Til I see the top
I'm gonna keep tryin'
Though I may get lost
Not gonna let you bring me down
I'll take the high road I know I'll get by to be free
I can't keep it inside
I may fall sometimes

But I will survive I'm gonna keep reachin'
I'm gonna keep climbin'
I'm gonna keep tryin' I'm gonna keep walkin'
Though it may seem far
I'm gonna keep reachin'
When life gets too hard
Not gonna let you bring me down
I'll take the high road I'm gonna get by on the high road
I'm gonna get by on the high road
I'm gonna be fine on the high road I'm gonna get by on the high road
I'm gonna get by on the high road
I'm gonna be fine on the high road
