

Wishing Well

Lillix

You had me leaning over wishing wells
Trip and fall, put under your spell
And I would go under any day
For you my heart would drown in pain It's sad to say it had to be done
But don't call to tell me you found the one
It hurts beyond what words can say
If you loved me you'd be here today Lived in fantasy, you were meant for me
In a feeling, hearts revealing
Hear the symphony you took away from me
Lost your feeling, believing reality The knight in shining never came
To pick me up and carry me away
I'm left here drowning in my tears
My wonderland now lives in fear Lived in fantasy, you were meant for me
In a feeling, hearts revealing
Hear the symphony you took away from me
Lost your feeling, believing reality Blind see it, deaf hear it
Love heal it, soon enough the numb will feel it
Blind see it, deaf hear it
Love heal it, soon enough the numb will feel it Lived in fantasy, you were meant for me
In a feeling, hearts revealing
Hear the symphony you took away from me
Lost your feeling, believing reality Deeper and deeper there I go
You don't know, that's why I weaken
Maybe some other time
(In a feeling, hearts revealing)
You don't know, that's why I weaken
Maybe some other time
(Lost your feeling, believing reality) Maybe some other time
