

Right Back In The Water

Jesse McCartney

I could tell by the look in her eyes
Maybe I'm just another one of her lies
'Cause I know we've been through this so many times
Still I'm here though I'm burning up inside And I try to walk away but I keep telling myself
She's the one for me
'Cause her love is so contagious, it keeps pulling me in
We were meant to be and I can't leave her
So we're right back in the water, we're right back in the water I could tell by the look in her eyes
All my friends keep telling me, now's the time
But I know just the notion saying goodbye
It breaks my heart, it tears me up inside And I try to walk away but I keep telling myself
She's the one for me
'Cause her love is so contagious, it keeps pulling me in
We were meant to be and I can't leave her So we're right back singing, ooh, c'mon, ooh, c'mon
I wanna walk by but there is something that won't let me
Singing, ooh, c'mon, ooh, c'mon
She's the one that's always there I could tell by the look in her eyes
Maybe I'm just another one of her lies And I try to walk away but I keep telling myself
She's the one for me
'Cause her love is so contagious, it keeps pulling me in
We were meant to be and I can't leave her
So we're right back in the water, we're right back in the water, yeah
