Panic

Backstreet Boys

Go, stop and go, I just hear static
I used to read you loud and clear
Not like this, you're so erratic
And I'm not rational when I
See you around
Your inconsistency, I know it's
Draggin' me down
You're so conflicted, baby
You're always walkin' away
(Walkin' away)
One step and everything's over
(Everything's over)
And you're runnin' back to me
You say, I let you down
Baby, take me in or just take me out
I'm already dead, I already said
(I already said)
I'm sorry
I made mistakes, I've been lunatic
A blind fanatic, don't you know
You're not immune to the panic
When somebody sends a [Incomprehensible]
When the snow hits your skin
The cold don't last forever
But you're livin' again
If you don't let seasons change
You're always walkin' away

(Walkin' away, always walkin' away)
One step and everything's over
(Everything's over)
And you're runnin' back to me
You say, I let you down
Baby, take me in or just take me out
I'm already dead, I already said
(I already said)
I'm sorry
How many times do I have to say
Before you believe me

Panic

You're always walkin' away
(Walkin' away, you're always walkin' away)
One step and everything's over
(Everything's over)
And you're runnin' back to me
You say, I let you down
(Let you down)
Baby, take me in or just take me out
Take me in or just take me out
(I'm already dead, I already, already said)
I'm already dead
(Already dead)
I already said
(I already said)
I'm sorry
