Love Crimes

Ruff Endz

I'm so sorry babe
So sorry, sorry, sorry babe
Ohh forgive me, ok?
I miss you, call me babe, hmmHow big of a fool could I have been?
To construct a fortress of love
And tear it all down again baby
Good things don't come easy
And I should've realized that fact
Now I'd risk my whole life
To regain my kingdom back, oh yeaChorus
If loving you's a crime then I'm criminal
I've got to do some time
Unconditional the love I have for you
Girl please forgive me
Because my heart is trueChorusOoh listen baby, hmm
Look down on me now
But please don't shut me out
Because a king ruling without his queen
Is unheard about
I can't run this race without you
Cause I've lost before I've begun
And with you I know the battle is wonChorus x2How can I show sorry?
Cause saying it just won't do
How can I show that I love you?
And not make it up to you
To even think that I'm a liar
And my heart is untrue
(How can I show you that my heart is true)
How can I show, that I really, really, really love you baby, hey yeaChorus x2I know I was wrong, forgive me
Please take me back, forgive me
I can't go on, please forgive me
Because my heart is true
I know I was wrong, forgive me
Please take me back, forgive me
I can't go on, please forgive me
Because my heart is trueChorus Fade
