Sane

Paradise Lost

Seasons of sun won't suffice
But for you, my guarding light
I'd walk around this earthAlthough the streets are paved with gold
I'd collect it to be sold
I'm bringing this on myselfBut I feel for you, but I feel for you
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're saneIn your mouth a loaded gun
Pull the trigger, have you won
Let's see how you can doIt's the darker days you dread
All the hurtful things I said
It seems I'm nothingBut I feel for you, but I feel for you
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're saneWill you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're sane
Will you show you're
