Let It Die

Ozzy Osbourne

I'm a rock star, I'm a dealer
I'm a servant, I'm a leader
I'm a savior, I'm a sinner, I'm a killer
I'll be anything you want me to beSilent as a witness
Make your heart race with a death kiss
I'm a soldier in a blood war
In the peace corp I am everything you'll ever beLoser number zero
Play the victim, end up a hero
I'm a teacher, preacher
Liar, I am anything, everythingI'm a mover and a shaker
The oppressor, stimulator
I'm a coward, I'm a fighter
I'm everythingYou are me, I am you
Everything is breaking, no mistaking, it's all changing
Tear it down, watch it all start burning
All that's done is done, just let it lieIt's a revelation, celebration, graduation
Times collide, watch the world awaken
All the past regrets from days gone by
Let it go, let it dieIt's a new day for the faceless
Take the torches from the useless
First amendment second guesses
All dependent, I'll do anything to help youFallen crosses, new alliance
Deeper thinkers, modern science
(Android)
Open guest list, all inclusive
No one loses everything you always wantedHonest answers for the bruises
Full disclosure, no excuses
Open handshake, clean slate
No hate, living historyMisery, information, revolution
Loading up for execution
Push the button, pull the trigger, I'm everything
You are me, I am you
