

Faster Gun

Little Big Town

You walk in six gun style
Put another bullet in the chamber with your smile You move in and you don't stop
Till your pretty little finger pulls the trigger and the hammer drops Love for you is like a wild west movie
You always end up on the run
You draw quick and your aim is deadly
And then you ride off in the sun
Someday I hope you find a faster gun Cold steel, gun powder kiss
Livin' for the taste of new blood on your lips Your high noon is a midnight moon
Puttin' every Jesse James to shame with your gunshot wound Love for you is like a wild west movie
You always end up on the run
You draw quick and your aim is deadly
And then you ride off in the sun
Someday I hope you find a faster gun Somebody gonna come along and shoot you
Like you shot me down
Somebody gonna come along and shoot you down Somebody gonna come along and shoot you
Like you shot me down
Somebody gonna come along and shoot you down Love for you is like a wild west movie
You always end up on the run
You draw quick and your aim is deadly
And then you ride off in the sun
(Somebody gonna come along and shoot you down)
Someday I hope you find a faster gun Somebody gonna come along and shoot you down Somebody gonna come along and shoot you
Like you shot me down
Somebody gonna come along and shoot you down down
