Never Can Decide (Ivy Lab Remix)

Anushka

I NEVER CAN DECIDEI fall, I sleep with your heart round my neck
What if I spit the joker from the deck?I'm anchored down, stuck in this town
What happens if I leave and then I need you back?
Expect you to wait, then I hesitate
I know it's real because you know to compensate
Expect you to waitYou have MY HEART in your hands
I wait and see and you left
You have MY HEART in your hands
I wait and see and you left
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decideKeep it locked up inside, won't let me in It's stop, stop, high drop
You falter, I just can't win
You say I'm to blame, you want me to change
I probably should but I can't seem to play that game
We twist and turn, I never learn
But lessons never seem to be my main concern
You have MY HEART
You have MY HEARTI had it all figured out
When you came and figured it out
The way you supersede the pessimistic part of me
I had it all figured out
When you came and figured it out
The way you supersede the pessimistic part of meYou have MY HEART in your hands
I wait and see and you left
You have MY HEART in your hands
I wait and see and you leftI never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never, never, never, never
I never can decide
I never can decide

Never, never, never
Never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
I never can decide
