

Goodbye

Krystal Harris

Goodbye
You came into my life
Like something straight out of the sky
Gave me what I thought was love
But ended up in disguise Those words you told me
They made me open up my heart
But now I'm torn apart [chorus]
Seen your eyes
Heard your lies
Now it's over
Say goodbye
Made me cry
Can't describe my pain
That's why I'm saying goodbye Sometimes I still see your lips
Telling me your sweet nothings
But, then you turn right around
And tell someone else the sweet same thing Those words (those words) you told me
They made me open up my heart
But now I'm torn apart [chorus x 2] Na na na
Na na na
Now it's over baby, goodbye
Na na na na na Say goodbye Those words (those words) you told me
They made me open my heart
But now I'm torn all apart
[chorus x 2]
Say goodbye [x 5]
