Venus Again

David Mead

When you gonna leave me alone?
Wake up and get on with your life
When you gonna pick up the phone?
Can't you see I'm lonely tonight?Stranded out on Venus again
Waiting for the TV to speak
Where are all my beautiful friends?
Toasting off my beautiful weekWould you throw me a rope if I asked you to dance?
Swallow me whole if I gave you the chance, oh yeah
Somewhere in space there's a start and an end
Show me the way 'cause I'm stranded on Venus again
On Venus againStrolling down the length of La Brea
Searching for my angels with spoons
Holding out the length of the day here
Praying for the light of the moonWould throw me a rope if I asked you to dance?Hung out by the neon lights
Well, maybe I'm wrong for thinking I'm right
Hello California, can't you see I'm lonely tonight?Would you throw me a rope if I asked you to dance?
