

An Almighty Thud

We Were Promised Jetpacks

I lost my crown
When it hit the ground with an almighty thud
I went to pick it up
But revealed my weaknesses to the crowdAnd I lost my home
When I lost my throne to a successor
With far more expansive plans than I ever did
I abdicatedYou're the last thing I want
I'd love to stay here
You're the last thing I want
I'd love to live hereAnd I sat in my castle and I waited on news
From one final battle that we couldn't afford to lose
And I whispered suddenly
My greatest fears to anyone who would hear me
