Irreversable

I Am Alpha and Omega

Just as You said, You stand with me,
Despite the fire, My soul will never be afraid,
There is a war, For those I love,
I will be strong,[Chorus:]
There is no price, that I can put on a love like Yours,
There is no hope that I've found (They cannot change it)
There is no hope that I've found (They cannot take it away)
In a world without You,Just as you said, The storms will rage,
The gusts will blow, but my foundation is strong,
Just as I'm called, I will show love,
No Pain, no words will ever stop my heart.There is a war, For those I love,
I will be strong[Chorus]
