

Six Candles

FM Static

Your amazing but your taking too much time I've only got six candles left And I'm trying to keep this off my mind It's getting darker but it's the way they make feel They try to fill my head with questions They all doubt you but I know your real it takes time then I'll be patient Know that I will still believe I'll take your hand and hold it tightly Because I know you'll carry me Take me high, Take me in, Take these last six candles And when I'm tired, and wearing thin. Give me the strength to carry on Here I am, see my hands, take these last six candles We're moving on, we'll keep, keep, moving on And I'm so thankful for every breath I take Theres not a moment that goes by I waste wiping tears out of my crying face Don't loss so sad, you've missed the point I'm still so glad I knew you against the odds I'll take my chances and burn this candle through you If I could ever see the way you understand me When no one else can see it I know you surround me I'll be the one who listens only when you tell me Not walking but running, not talking, yell in And they might never understand why I do what I do But I can only speak my mind And what I feel is true I'll take a vow to be the only one who stands if it takes All that I am, I will be standing, there, there
