

Unending Waves

Daylight Dies

i have memories
clouded by sorrow
of a time in life
when blood ran though my veinsbut these walls keep closing suffocating
and now i'm trapped beneath the weight of my own lossin the company of my misery
i gasp for air
only to drown
againunending waves of memories life's only gife bestowed to me
