

Done 4 Me

Cassidy

It's a blessin' that I'm even alive
It's a reason that I'm breathin', I believe there's a God
Hey, look what He done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what He done for me
Hey, some people choose not to believe
But I pray e'ry day when I drop to my knees
I say, look what You done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what You done for me
Hey, I wake up e'ry day and say thank You
When I'm floatin' off course then the Lord is my anchor
I know you feelin' me ain'tcha?
When I kill time with my son that's keepin' it gangster
I'm done beefin' 'cause I'm eatin'
I feel bein' a father to my son that's keepin' it real
And I'm the one providin' at home
So I can't leave my seed to survive on his own, no
No, it's not optional man
That's why I maneuver through the obstacles man
And I watch for the snakes that's in the grass
So I can stay alive and be a daddy to Cas
It's a blessin' that I'm even alive
It's a reason that I'm breathin', I believe there's a God
Hey, look what He done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what He done for me
Hey, some people choose not to believe
But I pray e'ry day when I drop to my knees
I say, look what You done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what You done for me
Hey, I pray another rapper don't get shot
'Cause the media's gon' blame it on hip hop
Look at Big L, Soulja Slim and Big Pop'
Jam Master Jay, the boy Proof and the kid 'Pac

You and me gon' have to see to it the  stop
If not, they gon' bring rap to a pit stop
Plus the hip hop cops ain't a myth ock
They'll love to sit you in the box if you slip ock
You a big shot, you will get more time
Look at C-Murder, Cool C and the boy Shyne

Beans and Kim got a day and a year
It's rules to the game and they ain't playin' it fair, yeah
It's a blessin' that I'm even alive
It's a reason that I'm breathin', I believe there's a God
Hey, look what He done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what He done for me
Hey, some people choose not to believe
But I pray e'ry day when I drop to my knees
I say, look what You done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what You done for me
Hey, God is good, God is great
It's a reason that I'm breathin' and it gotta be faith
And I'm thankful that I'm eatin', there's a lot on my plate
If the Lord wasn't watchin' I'd be ridin' upstate
Hey, so I wake up e'ry day and say thank You
When I'm floatin' off course, then the Lord is my anchor
I know you feelin' me ain'tcha?
See Christ died on the cross, that's keepin' it gangster
It's a blessin' that I'm even alive
It's a reason that I'm breathin', I believe there's a God
Hey, look what He done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what He done for me
Hey, some people choose not to believe
But I pray e'ry day when I drop to my knees
I say, look what You done for me
Loo-loo-look, loo-loo-look, look what You done for me, hey
