

The Inevitable Shove

The Both

Saving up for the big one You'll be bigger than big, son
Get up and out of your bed, hon
And get it out of your head, son Because you can't blame
the ones that you love
No, you can't blame
the ones that you love
But you're still gonna blame
the ones that you love
So now I'm steeling myself
for the inevitable shove
Yeah, I'm steeling myself
for the inevitable shove Taking more than you get, now You know we're all in your debt now And no one but you's gonna knock you from the top And no one but you's gonna ever make it stop Because you can't blame
the ones that you love
No, you can't blame
the ones that you love
But you're still gonna blame
the ones that you love
So now I'm steeling myself
for the inevitable shove
for the inevitable shove
